1. Educational and Informational Purposes Only

The information, guides, tips, and tutorials provided on this website are for general educational and informational purposes only. While we strive to provide accurate and up-to-date content regarding cybersecurity, data privacy, and computer safety, digital threats change rapidly. The content on this site should not be treated as professional cybersecurity or technical advice.

2. No Liability and "As-Is" Security

All software recommendations, security configurations, and technical steps are provided on an "as-is" basis without warranties of any kind. Implementing cybersecurity measures, modifying system settings, or downloading software carries inherent risks. We are not liable for any data loss, system crashes, malware infections, or financial losses resulting from the use or misuse of the information on this website.

3. No Guarantee of Absolute Security

No security tool or practice can guarantee 100% protection against all cyber threats, hacking, or data breaches. Following the advice on this website does not immunize your devices or accounts against all risks.

4. External Links Disclaimer

This website may contain links to third-party tools, software, or external websites. We do not control, endorse, or assume responsibility for the content, privacy policies, or safety of these third-party services. You download and use third-party software at your own risk.
